FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Coatesville Veterans Affairs Medical Center Encourages and Enables Veterans to Register to Vote

Coatesville, PA . October 3rd . Coatesville Veterans Affairs Medical Center (CVAMC) and the League of Women Voters of Chester County operated a voter registration station at the medical center this week, giving veteran patients, as well as employees, an opportunity to easily sign up if they had yet to do so.

At the Coatesville VA Medical Center, everything we do centers around helping veterans,+said Gary W. Devansky, Director of CVAMC, +We recognize that voting is a civic duty, as well as a constitutional right, and we are committed to doing whatever we can to ensure our patients have the ability to exercise that right.+

In all, 22 veterans and 30 employees visited the registration station and registered to vote in the upcoming November 4th, 2008 election.
